

DEKALB COUNTY
COMMISSIONER LEE MAY
DISTRICT 5

Community Events August 22nd-29th

I would like to thank South DeKalb Residents for attending the

WHAT: Crime Prevention Tour
Hosted by Commissioner May, Sheriff Thomas Brown, District Attorney Gwen Fleming, Solicitor Robert James
The event is free and open to the public

WHEN: Saturday, August 22nd at 8:30am-Noon

WHERE: New Birth Missionary Baptist Church (Multipurpose Room)
6400 Woodrow Rd, Lithonia 30038
We had about 240 residents to attend
Highlights will be shown on DCTV

Community Events

WHEN: Thursday, August 27th at 11:00a.m.
WHAT: The Groundbreaking Ceremony
WHERE: Salem-Panola Library - 5137 Salem Road,

WHEN: Saturday, August 29th 9am-5pm
WHAT: Hope Through Health Clinic 2009
Sponsored by City of Ministry
Ray of Hope Christian Church

WHERE: Southwest DeKalb High School, 2863 Kelly Chapel Rd, Decatur 30034

This free mobile health clinic will provide a variety of healthcare services at no cost to the community such as; optometry services, dental services, medical exams, speech and hearing screening. In addition, we will offer clothing and food assistance.

Please keep the family of Jameelah Qureshi & Officer Dwayne Thomas in your prayer. Her memorial service was Saturday, August 22nd www.facebook.com/jameelah.queshi

Please visit my website www.leemaydistrict5.com to sign up for free walk a thons for example MADD & Walk Georgia (We should all try to get fit and healthy)

I hope everyone have a safe upcoming Labor Day Holiday Weekend!